- n. In case the provisional winner complies with all the terms and conditions and all his documents/declarations are found to be in order after scrutiny, he will be declared as the final winner.
- o. He shall then put his signature in the Register of Settlement and register of undertaking to lift the minimum guaranteed quantity as may be determined by the Government from time to time and shall be then granted licence by the Collector.
- p. If the lottery winner fails to comply with the above conditions by the stipulated dates or is found to have furnished false documents or mis-represented or have suppressed any relevant information at the time of submitting the application the provisional winner of the lottery shall be declared disqualified and EMD deposited shall be forfeited without prejudice to any other criminal action that may be initiated against him. The lottery in case of that shop shall be cancelled and fresh lottery shall be held within next seven days after due notice from amongst the remaining eligible applicants.
- q. If the applicant on being successful in the lottery, declines or refuses or willfully or otherwise omits to take licence, the EMD amount tendered by him shall stand forfeited to the State Government and he shall further be liable for any loss that may accrue to the State Government because of delay in settlement of that shop. He or his family members or his associates will not be permitted to take part in the settlement of that shop or any other shop in the district for 5 (five) years including the year of his default as per the rules – 35 and 149 of the said rules.
- r. The holder of license shall open the shop in the stipulated locality within 15 days from issue of license.
- s. The State Government reserves the right to refuse grant of privilege without assigning any reason thereof and settle the privilege before expiry of five years in the manner as may be decided by the State Government from time to time.
- t. In case of expiry of validity period or omission of renewal or suspension or cancellation or surrender of licence , the shop shall be settled through lottery or be allowed to be run by other Government agencies with the licence fee for the remaining period of the license as decided by the State Government.
- u. The decision of the Excise Commissioner relating to any dispute on account of lottery at the District level shall be final and binding upon all the applicants to the lottery.
- v. The winner of the lottery shall abide by the provisions of the said Act and rules and the Odisha Excise Policy for the year and any other instruction or notifications and circulars issued on the subject, from time to time, by component authority. Any violation in this regard may entail cancellation of the license.

- w. The license holder shall have no right to claim renewal of license.
x. In view of the letter No. 1955/Ex., Dt. 13.04.2021, in case of O.S. shops, the O.S. licensees are required to furnish Bank Guarantee to the tune of three months consideration money of the shop subject to maximum of Rs. 10 lakhs per shop.
